

The Heritage Companies Partners with Salvation Army on Angel Tree Program to Bring Christmas Joy

TAMPA, FL - [December 11, 2025] This holiday season, the Heritage Companies is spreading joy to families across the U.S. through the Salvation Army's Angel Tree Program. This year, the Heritage Companies proudly supported 320 Angels thanks to the generous contributions of employees from Heritage Insurance and Narragansett Bay Insurance Company.

The Angel Tree program provides an opportunity for community partners to come together to help deliver the Christmas spirit to children and families nationwide. Since 2017, the Heritage Companies' teams have supported a total of 2,560 Angels, making this year another meaningful milestone in their multi-year commitment to giving back.

Ernie Garateix, CEO of the Heritage Companies, said, "Supporting the Salvation Army and its Angel Tree Program are just one way that our team gives back to the community. I'm proud of the generosity that our employees display when participating in this Christmas program over the last 10 years. Kindness and sacrificial giving are the very spirit of Christmas."
